PRESIDENT WELCOME

Friends,

I am delighted to invite you to attend our Australian Local Government Association's 30th annual National General Assembly (NGA) of Local Government in Canberra.

Following on from the tremendous success of last year's annual Conference, this year promises to be our best yet.

I'm thrilled that we will once again be partnering with the Federal Government to host the Australian Council of Local Government (ACLG) immediately after our Conference, on Friday 5 July.

Last year's ACLG – secured by ALGA on your behalf – was the first held in more than a decade, and provided us with the opportunity to provide direct feedback to the Prime Minister and key Federal Ministers on what local governments need to thrive for the future.

This will be the last ACLG before the next Federal Election, and is a valuable opportunity for us to speak to the Federal Government with one voice about the policies and funding partnerships our communities need.

The theme of this year's NGA is "Building Community Trust". As the most trusted level of government, we know trust is an incredibly important foundation, and under threat in democracies around the world today.

Sadly, Australia has not been immune to a general decline in public trust over recent years, and many of you have witnessed the effects this has had on our communities firsthand.

We all know that if we are going to continue to deliver in the face of ongoing natural disasters, skills shortages and cost of living pressures, then trust in government, between governments, our institutions and our citizens is fundamentally important.

As the level of government closest to the community we have the best opportunity to bring people together at a grassroots level, and work collaboratively for the public good.

Local government has a crucial part to play in restoring trust in Australian democracy, and without question, investing in local government is an investment in our nation's future.

I look forward to hearing your ideas on the support we need to realise this opportunity, and welcoming you to our annual conference in Canberra this July.

Cr Linda Scott
ALGA President

NGA INFORMATION

New NGA Program Format

This year's NGA will feature some changes to the format of conference sessions and breaks. Conference sessions have been extended in length to allow extra time for questions and answers. Break times have been rearranged so there are now two 60 minute breaks on each day of the NGA, rather than two 30 minute and one 60 minute break. These changes are designed to provide delegates greater value through better opportunities to ask questions in presentations, as well as more time to visit the exhibition hall, or conduct meetings during meal breaks.

Listening Sessions

Another change to the format of the NGA this year is the inclusion of four concurrent "Listening Sessions" being held immediately following the Regional Forum on the afternoon of Tuesday 2 July. These sessions have been designed to provide delegates the opportunity to engage directly with representatives from federal government departments about the issues being faced by councils. The sessions will focus on four key topics: Roads and Transport, Energy Transition, Disaster Resilience and Recovery, and National Housing and Community Infrastructure. All NGA delegates are invited to attend one of these sessions and will be asked to nominate which when registering their attendance.

Virtual Registration

If you can't make it to the 2024 National General Assembly take advantage of the Virtual Registration. As a virtual participant you will be able to view ALL National General Assembly Sessions from Tuesday through to Thursday.
