Dear Adrian

Thank you for your recent correspondence regarding resolutions passed at the National General Assembly. Thank you also for making yourself available at the Congress, during a very busy time, I appreciated the opportunity to meet you.

It is my belief that the issues raised by the resolutions, related to building issues, are not inconsistent with the direction the Australian Building Codes Board is currently taking.

I am pleased to be able to advise the Board recently held an extraordinary meeting to consider its role in implementing recommendations of the Building Confidence Report.

I am comfortable in my role on the Board in seeking opportunities to raise these issues and do what I can, to further the interests of the Australian Local Government Association, particularly as outlined in the resolutions passed.

Yours sincerely

Rolph Vos
